All donation requests must be submitted eight weeks prior to the event in order for time to be reviewed and considered.

Please Note:
Each request is essential to us and we love that you have considered our winery, products, and experiences to be part of your event. We try our best to review and respond to as many as possible as Ex Nihilo Vineyards is a longstanding supporter of the community. Although we review all requests to assess their suitability and the resources required, due to the extreme volume received, we regret that we cannot grant each request.

Due to the nature of our products we are unable to donate wine to the following organizations or activities: amateur athletes or amateur athletic organizations, individuals, schools, projects, or programs for minors under the age of 19, religious and denominational organizations, and vehicular or motorized sporting events.
